Dear Sir:

Responding to your enquiry of the 19th, I am enclosing a circular regarding our Society together with an application card which, if you will fill out, I shall be very glad to present to our Council at its next meeting.

This organization is open to anyone who is a serious student or collector of coins, and we shall be very glad to welcome you as an Associate Member.

Very truly yours,

Encs.

Dear Sir:

I have your card of application for membership in our Society, and shall be glad to place it before our Council at its next meeting, which will probably take place early in October, after which time I will write you again.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

It gives me pleasure to inform you that you were unanimously elected an Associate Member of the Society, through the nomination of Mr. Sydney P. Noe, at the meeting of the Council which was held on Friday, September 10th. We are very glad to add your name to our Membership list, and trust that we may have the pleasure of welcoming you at the Museum at any time you may find it convenient to call.

Very truly yours,
